- Y. Sexual Abuse:
1. Criminal sexual conduct as defined by section 520b to 520e or 1931 PA 318, being MCL 750.520b to MCL 750.520e involving an employee, volunteer, or agent of a provider and a recipient.
 2. Any sexual contact or sexual penetration involving an employee, volunteer, or agent of a Department operated hospital or center, a facility licensed by the Department under section 137 of the act or an adult foster care facility and a recipient.
 3. Any sexual contact or sexual penetration involving an employee, volunteer, or agent or a provider and a recipient for whom the employee, volunteer, or agent provides direct services.
- Z. Sexual Contact: The intentional touching of the recipient's or employee's intimate parts or the touching of the clothing covering the immediate area of the recipient's or employee's intimate parts, if that intentional touching can be construed as being for the purpose of sexual arousal or gratification, done for a sexual purpose, or in a sexual manner for any of the following:
1. Revenge
 2. To inflict humiliation
 3. Out of anger
- AA. Sexual Harassment: Sexual advances toward a recipient, requests for sexual favors from a recipient, or other conduct or communication of a sexual nature toward a recipient.
- BB. Sexual Penetration: Sexual intercourse, cunnilingus, fellatio, anal intercourse, or any other intrusion, however slight, of any part of a person's body or of any object into the genital or anal openings of another person's body, but emission of semen is not required.

- CC. Therapeutic De-escalation: An intervention, the implementation of which is incorporated in the individualized written plan of service, wherein the recipient is placed in an area or room, accompanied by staff who shall therapeutically engage the recipient in behavioral de-escalation techniques and debriefing as to the cause and future prevention of the target behavior.
- DD. Unreasonable Force: Physical management or force that is applied by an employee, volunteer, or agent of a provider to a recipient where there is no imminent risk of significant injury to the recipient, staff, or others, or that is any of the following in one or more of the following circumstances:
1. Not in compliance with approved behavior management techniques. There is no imminent risk of serious or non-serious physical harm to the recipient, staff or others.
 2. The physical management used is not in compliance with techniques approved by the provider and the responsible mental health agency.
 3. The physical management used is not in compliance with the emergency interventions authorized in the recipient's individual plan of service
 4. The physical management or force is used when other less restrictive measures were possible but not attempted immediately before the use of physical management or force.
- EE. Physical management as defined in R330.7001 (R), may only be used in situations when a recipient is presenting an imminent risk of serious or non-serious physical harm to himself, herself or others and lesser restrictive interventions have been unsuccessful in reducing or elimination the imminent risk of serious or non-serious physical harm. Both of the following shall apply:
1. Physical management shall not be included as a component in a behavior plan.
 2. Prone immobilization of a recipient for the purpose of behavior control is prohibited unless implementation of physical management techniques other than prone immobilization is medically contraindicated and documented in the recipient's record.
- FF. Verbal abuse: The use of language or other means of communication by an employee, volunteer, or agent of a provider to degrade, threaten, or sexually harass a recipient.
- GG. Volunteer: An individual who, without compensation, other than reimbursement for expenses, performs activities for CMHA under specified conditions.
- HH. Written Directives: Clinical directives, house rules, meeting minutes, letters, memos, logs, or any other written communication to an employee, volunteer, or agent of a provider regarding the care and treatment of a recipient.

IV. POLICY:

- A. Recipients shall not be subjected to abuse or neglect.

- B. Any suspected abuse or neglect is promptly reported.
- C. Appropriate disciplinary action is taken for substantiated allegations of abuse or neglect.
- D. All employees, volunteers, and agents of providers are trained in the requirements for reporting alleged incidents of abuse or neglect, and in the rights and responsibilities of recipients, before or within 30 days of being employed.
- E. The Chief Executive Officer shall ensure that:
 - 1. Notification of the appropriate law enforcement agencies occurs, as required by law.
 - 2. Notification of the Department of Health and Human Services.
 - 3. Adult or Child Protective Services occurs, as required by law.
 - 4. Notification of the Department of Recipient and Industry Services Bureau of Regulatory Services occurs, as required by law.
 - 5. Upon receipt of an allegation of abuse or neglect, immediate action is taken to protect the recipient and to prevent further abuse or neglect. This may include suspending or transferring the involved employee, volunteer, trainee, or recipient during the investigation, and notifying the applicable parent or guardian.
 - 6. All employees, volunteers, and agents of providers who may have knowledge of alleged abuse or neglect are available to, cooperate with, and respond to questions from those conducting official investigations.
 - 7. All employees, volunteers, agents of providers, recipients, and others who report suspected abuse or neglect, or who cooperate in an investigation are protected from discrimination, harassment, or retaliation in accordance with applicable laws and agency policies/procedures, and appropriate disciplinary action is taken if this does occur.
 - 8. Appropriate remedial and firm and fair disciplinary action is taken in accordance with personnel policies for substantiated allegations of abuse or neglect.

V. PROCEDURE

A. Prevention and Protection

- 1. All employees, volunteers, and agents of providers shall safeguard recipients from abuse and neglect, obtain treatment for observed injuries, and act to prevent additional harm.
- 2. The Office of Recipient Rights shall provide training on the definitions of abuse and neglect, and the mandated reporting requirements.
- 3. There are special reporting requirements for persons receiving Substance Abuse treatment; reference policy 05-01-33 (42 C.F.R. Part 2).

B. Reporting

- 1. All employees, volunteers, and agents of providers shall:
 - a) Immediately make an oral report to the Chief Executive Officer/Designee and to the Office of Recipient Rights, when they witness, discover, or have reasonable cause to suspect, abuse or neglect of a recipient, and follow-up with a written Incident Report within 24 hours;

- b) Write an Incident Report within 24 hours when they witness, discover, or otherwise become aware of, an assault by one recipient against another if it results in serious physical harm;
- c) Report to the designated law enforcement agency, as required by law. The reporting person shall immediately make or cause to be made, by telephone or otherwise, an oral report of suspected criminal abuse to the law enforcement agency. Within 72 hours after making the oral report, the reporting person shall file a written report with the law enforcement agency, the Chief Executive Officer/Designee, and the Office of Recipient Rights in accordance with applicable laws and procedures;
- d) Report to the Department of Health and Human Services Protective Services according to their definitions of abuse, endangerment, exploitation or neglect, as required by law. The reporting person shall make an oral report immediately, by telephone or otherwise and may file a written report;
- e) Report to the Department of Recipient and Industry Services Bureau of Regulatory Services as required by law.

- 2. An employee, volunteer, or agent of a provider who fails to make a required report shall be subject to disciplinary action, and legal penalties and liabilities.
- 3. The employee in charge of implementing the recipient's plan of service shall notify the guardian or parent of a minor of any suspected abuse or neglect of that recipient

C. Investigation: The Office of Recipient Rights shall conduct timely investigations of alleged abuse or neglect in accordance with the agency's investigation procedure.
